The NYPWA Conference is the perfect venue to showcase your products and services to decision-makers from New York’s 58 local departments of social services, state government agencies, and other organizations. No other conference can offer you more direct contact with commissioners and other upper level administrators from local districts.

The four coffee breaks scheduled on Wednesday, January 25, and Thursday, January 26, will all take place in the exhibit area in order to promote high traffic. The exhibit area is also designed such that attendees will need to pass through on the way to many workshops, meetings, and meals.

Reserve your booth space now! Prime booth space is assigned based on registration date and level of conference sponsorship. Don't miss this opportunity to be recognized at the New York Public Welfare Association conference as an exhibitor, advertiser, or sponsor.
Exhibitor Space
